

The role of OHS Regional Network representatives

All Regional Networkers will:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • be a member of the OHS, or work for an organisation with group or institutional membership 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • attend the OHS Regional Network Annual Event at least once every three years
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • act as a point of contact for members of the public, responding to enquiries about oral history, giving advice, and where appropriate referring enquirers to other sources of guidance 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • if possible they will facilitate regional or sub-regional oral history networks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • become a member of the Virtual Network (VN) email discussion group, unless: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ they are non-email users ○ their organisation's policies do not permit membership of email groups ○ their computer system has insufficient capacity for the volume of messages 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If possible they will contribute to the Current British News section of the Oral History Society journal
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • actively encourage and support the development and use of oral history in their own locality 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • if possible they will attend the Oral History Society Annual Conference
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • contribute to the OHS Regional Network Annual Report 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • if possible they will contribute to regional pages on the OHS website
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • maintain high standards of conduct compatible with the Ethical Guidelines of the Oral History Society
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • keep up to date with technical or legal developments relevant to oral history, and with current debates 	